# 10 pts Questions (30 points)

1. Write a SMART goal for next week?
= I've included a list of a few SMART goals for the upcoming week. Through LinkedIn Learning, I'll finish the courses I'm enrolled in and acquire a certificate. I won't eat out for a week to save money for an emergency. I'll go to bed early, rise early, and during the hour before and after bed, I won't use any devices. I'll take a lot of water to hydrate myself. I'll forgo social media and meditate for 30 minutes each day. I'll finish my work ahead of schedule and utilize the additional time to focus on projects that will advance my abilities.
2. What would you do differently next week?
= I'm attempting to come up with other ideas for the upcoming week, and I'll try my best to win my students' trust while forming a good rapport with them. I'll be more adaptive if I'm upbeat, understanding, etc. I won't try to panic or lose my cool in a challenging situation. I'll focus more on the action going ahead rather than the debate. I'll reflect on my past mistakes and try to do better in the future.

3. What is the most significant take-a-way you have gained from your study this week?

= This week, I learned a few new talents. After this week of classes, I'm making an effort to conduct myself professionally in order to do better and make a greater contribution. To have a pleasant work attitude, I'm getting a little more personal. I came to realize how important having certain professional abilities are for our professions and initiatives. I also learned how crucial it is for each team member to have clearly defined duties that adhere to appropriate ethics. We also reviewed several scenarios that may take place in the absence of effective coordination and team member conduct guidelines. As a result, I discovered the importance of being kind to our team members without applying pressure, as well as the influence that ethics may have.
