

Acorn Project Worksheet

Project Mission Focus: Disciple of Jesus Christ

- Team Name: BetterthanTeamAte
- Team member's Names: Wessly Green, Abishek Chudal, Leven Barney, Mausham Bista
- Project Title: Dating is Fun!
- Project Influences:

	Belief	Actions
Self	oConsciousness	oConduct
Group	oConnectedness	oInteraction
Community	oRepresentation	oCooperation

Explain:

Is going to influence us by learning how to minister to other people. Dating takes more than one person, dedication, and Christ-like love.

- Project Values:
 - Honesty
 - Respect
 - Loyalty
 - Trust
 - Funny
- Description: By using these values, we want to create a bond with our dates. Have a fun but most important spiritual environment.
- Vision Statement: In the scriptures we learn that there are going to be challenges in our lives, and it's not different in love life either, but God will not give us something we can't do. We know that not all dates are going to work, but we won't lose faith, and we are going to keep trying, by asking more girls out, planning better dates, being friendly, and charismatic.

· SMART Goal:

- o Specific: A date with 3 activities that will be going to Nature Park to go on a walk and talk, then we will play pickleball, and we will end by going out for dessert.
- o Measurable: We are going to measure our ability to be a disciple of Jesus Christ on a scale of 1 to 10 throughout the date.
- o Attainable: One week planning for this activity.
- o Relevant: This project will help us be more disciples of Jesus Christ and create a stronger bond with our heavenly father.
- o Timely: Having already chosen a time and place this date should only take 4-5 hours.

Summary: In planning this date, we as a group are talking together about how we can make sure that our plans are specific so everybody is on the same page, measurable so that everyone knows about how long we would take, attainable in the time period we will have, relevant to our institutional learning outcomes, and timely for the effectiveness of the date.

· Audience (Who, What, Where, When, Why, How):

The audience for this project most probably will be girls and us with few people around us where we go. We will just play pickleball, go to the park and talk with each other about us and have ice cream. We will probably go to the nature park and then we will go to walk in the road and most probably the bakery or somewhere we will get the ice cream or dessert. We will probably go on next week. The purpose of going on a date is to get to know each other better, having fun and chilling. We will do this by finding people, talking with them and inviting them until we find someone to go.

· Roles and Responsibilities:

Role	Responsibilities
o 1: Leader everything is being fulfilled)	(Responsible for making sure
o 2: Thinker going to do on the dates)	(Responsible for the activities we are o 3: Challenger first does not work)	(Responsible for having a plan B if the o N: Supporter	(Responsible for maintaining a good, funny, and respectful environment in the group)

· Milestones

- o 1. Plan a date
- o 2. Pickleball game
- o 3. Group prayer for day
- o 4. Identify when the project will be completed.
- o 5. Employ what we learned on our next date.

· Instructor Improvements Suggestions:

- o _____
- o _____

[] Approved Date: _____

Acorn Project Worksheet

Project Mission Focus: Sound Thinkers

- Team Name: BetterthanTeamAte
- Team member's Names: Wessly Green, Abishek Chudal, Leven Barney, Mausham Bista
- Project Title: Fishing
- Project Influences:

	Belief	Actions
Self	oConsciousness	oConduct
Group	oConnectedness	oInteraction
Community	oRepresentation	oCooperation

Explain: This project is going to influence us to grow our skills of planning activities with friends as a team.

- Project Values:
 - Problem-Solving
 - Critical thinking
 - Emotional aspects
 - Respect
 - Trust

- Description: By using these values, we want to create a bond with our dates. Have a fun but most important spiritual environment. We also want to be able to be patient and solve our problems more effectively.

- Vision Statement: With a team, we can use our problem-solving and critical thinking abilities to preserve our dates' respect and trust as we encounter several issues while dating.

- SMART Goal:

- o Specific: We'll ask the ladies out fishing and to the Ririe Reservoir.
- o Measurable: We gonna rate the quality of our dates on 1-10.
- o Attainable: Two weeks is plenty of time to plan a group date with three main activities in order to build a relationship/friendship.
- o Relevant: This project will help us develop stronger critical thinking skills.
- o Timely: A four-person fishing date takes roughly three hours to arrange, a few hours to select a day, and the remaining time can be used for the actual date.

Summary: In planning this date, we want to help our group and our dates develop stronger critical thinking, problem solving skills, increasing the bond between us and our dates; also we will have to be very careful with our time because of the different schedule but at the end we will make our way.

- Audience (Who, What, Where, When, Why, How):

The audience for this activity will likely consist of ourselves, the girls, and any nearby strangers. We're going to the Ririe Reservoir to fish. We'll likely continue the following week. Going on a date is meant to help you get to know each other better while also having fun and relaxing. To locate someone to go to, we will look for people, engage in conversation with them, and extend invitations.

· Roles and Responsibilities:

Role	Responsibilities
o 1: Leader	(Responsible for making sure everything is being fulfilled)
o 2: Thinker	(Responsible for making sure that we have everything we need for the activities we are going to do on the dates)
o 3: Challenger	(Responsible for having a plan B if the first does not work)
o N: Supporter	(Responsible for maintaining a good, funny, and respectful environment while in the presence of our dates)

· Milestones

- o 1. Planned a date with our group
- o 2. Prepare for date with what we need
- o 3. Go fishing with our dates
- o 4. Meet with group to see what we learned from the date
- o 5. Go on a second date using the knowledge we gathered from the first group date
- o 6. Meet again and see what we learned from the experiences as a whole

· Instructor Improvements Suggestions:

- o _____
- o _____

[] Approved Date: _____

Acorn Project Worksheet

Project Mission Focus: Effective Communicator

- Team Name: BetterthanTeamAte
- Team member's Names: Wessly Green, Abishek Chudal, Leven Barney, Mausham Bista
-

Project Title: Netflix and Chill

- Project Influences:

	Belief	Actions
Self	oConsciousness	oConduct
Group	oConnectedness	oInteraction
Community	oRepresentation	oCooperation

Explain: By using these values, we want to create a bond with our dates. Have a fun but most important spiritual environment. We also want to be able to be patient and solve our problems more effectively. Communication is also important, we will be influenced by being more extroverted.

- Project Values:

- Self-awareness
- Extroverted
- Honest
- Clear
- Confidence
- Trust

- Description: By using these values, we are gonna be more extroverted and honest with our dates. These will help us to have a better communication with them.

- Vision Statement: As a team we want to be self aware of how we affect others and our dates with our dates and our actions.

- SMART Goal:

- o Specific: We gonna make the cake, watch a movie while cake is baking and then play board games.
- o Measurable: We will ask the girl how our date plan was and ask them to rate it.
- o Attainable: Planning a group outing with three primary activities in order to develop a connection or relationship should take no more than two weeks.
- o Relevant: This project allows us to grow as communicators, to be better at not only sharing our message but also at understanding and receiving others messages.
- o Timely: It takes roughly 1.5 hours to organize a suitable date and it will probably take around 20-45 minutes to bake cake and which we will spend that time by watching movies or playing board games.

Summary: In planning this date, we seek we will be an effective communicator by not only talking but also listening and receiving feedback from our dates.

- Audience (Who, What, Where, When, Why, How):

The audience for our endeavor will most likely be girls and us, with only a few others accompanying us in our apartment. We'll simply bake a cake, watch movies, and play board games. We'll most likely go next week. The goal of a date is to get to know each other better while having fun and chilling.

Roles and Responsibilities:

Role	Responsibilities
o 1: Leader everything is being fulfilled)	(Responsible for making sure

- o 2: Thinker (Responsible for making sure we are prepared and our dates are still available.)
- o 3: Challenger (Responsible for having a plan B if the first does not work)
- o N: Supporter (Responsible for keeping a nice, amusing, and courteous climate in the group)

- Milestones

- o 1. Date has been planned
- o 2. Movie time
- o 3. Improve comfortability in effective communication
- o 4. Discuss our findings with the rest of the group
- o 5. Prepare for the next date

- Instructor Improvements Suggestions:

- o _____
- o _____

Acorn Project Worksheet

Project Mission Focus: Skilled Collaborators

- Team Name: BetterthanTeamAte
- Team member's Names: Wessly Green, Abishek Chudal, Leven Barney, Mausham Bista
-

Project Title: Winter is coming

· Project Influences:

	Belief	Actions
Self	oConsciousness	oConduct
Group	oConnectedness	oInteraction
Community	oRepresentation	oCooperation

Explain: We want to cooperate as a group in order to have better connection with our dates.

· Project Values:

- Effective listening
- Trust
- Respect
- Responsibility
- Relationship management

- Description: We hope to establish a connection with our dates by using these ideals. Have a good time, but above all, be spiritual. We want to be able to practice patience and find better ways to resolve issues. We aim to develop our ability to collaborate with one another's needs and work as a team.

·

Vision Statement: We want to become a more effective listener to show that we care about the relationship we are in and to become better collaborator.

· SMART Goal:

- o Specific: We will get in the winter season with our dates (hot tubbing, fiveguys, hot chocolate).
- o Measurable: We will determine the measure of the date from good to bad.
- o Attainable: We can become more effective collaborators in just one/two weeks.
- o Relevant: We want to have this date finished by the end of december.
- o Timely: We gathered as a group and went on a date which took around 4-5 hours.

Summary: In planning this date, we can become better listeners which includes girls' feelings and other girl stuff. We also want to win their trust by making them feel more comfortable.

· Audience (Who, What, Where, When, Why, How):

The audience for this initiative will likely consist of ourselves and the females. We'll take a hot tub, then stop by Five Guys for some hamburgers, and then we'll have hot chocolate. Going on a date is meant to help two people get to know one another better and develop respect and trust. We'll discover folks, engage in conversation with them, and extend invitations until someone accepts to join us.

· Roles and Responsibilities:

Role	Responsibilities
o 1: Leader everything is being fulfilled)	(Responsible for making sure
o 2: Thinker hot tubbing)	(Responsible for finding the place for
o 3: Challenger restaurant in case Five Guys is closed.)	(Responsible for looking any other
o N: Supporter and wants of the group and the dates.)	(Responsible for supporting the needs

- Milestones

- o 1. Plan where to go hot tubbing, Five Guys and chocolate.
- o 2. Going on a date and being on time.
- o 3. Talk about what we learned about collaboration from the date
- o 4. Invite the girls for another date
- o 5. Final thoughts

- Instructor Improvements Suggestions:

- o _____
- o _____

[] Approved Date: _____